

Carnevale in Italy brings a burst of colour to the dark, cold months of Italy. They usually host a Carnevale parade which this year would be on February 21st. Dancers wear masks and parade the streets of Venice. The costumes and masks are elaborate and there are parades, theater performances, comedy shows, and more. Venice carnival is one of the oldest carnivals in the world and has now gained a lot of traction internationally.

Dessert

CASTAGNOLE E GIANDUIA

Warm doughnuts filled with gianduia and served with a caramelised hazelnut cream

£9.95

Cocktails

DEATH IN VENICE

Creme de Peche, Aperol, soda & Prosecco with a touch of Absinthe

£11.50

MASQUERADE

Strawberry puree, mint syrup lengthened with Prosecco

£10

SAN MARCO ESPRESSO MARTINI

Tiramisu Liqueur shaken with Vodka, espresso and a touch of Almond syrup

£11.75